Guide to Election Procedures

Town/Community Council Elections

Introduction to Elections Procedures

These notes are to advise candidates who wish to stand as Town or Community Councillors, of the practice relating to Town/Community Council Elections. It is for general guidance only and is not intended as a comprehensive statement of the law.

The Returning Officer appointed by the Vale of Glamorgan Council, Sian Davies, is responsible for the conduct of, and arrangements for, Town and Community Council elections.

However, the Town and Community Council and its Clerk have an important role to play, especially in giving advice to prospective candidates prior to the four yearly ordinary elections and in the preliminary arrangements for the filling of casual vacancies, including by-elections.

Information about every vacancy – including Notice of Election, Statement of Persons Nominated, Notice of Poll and Declaration of Results – will be published on Vale of Glamorgan Council's website:-

http://www.valeofglamorgan.gov.uk/our\_council/council/elections.aspx

Further guidance can also be received from the Electoral Commission – www.electoralcommission.org.uk or Tel. 029 2034 6800.

These notes should be a useful reference if you are involved with Town/Community Council elections. However, if you need any more information, please contact:-

A. ORDINARY TOWN/COMMUNITY COUNCIL ELECTIONS

1. Term of Office

Town/Community Councillors hold office for a period of four years (or if elected part way through the cycle, for the remainder of that period only) and retire on the fourth day after the ordinary day of election. The newly elected Councillors take office (provided they have made declarations of acceptance of office) on the day on which their predecessors retire (Local Government Act, 1972, Section 16(3)). The Chair of a Town/Community Council continues in office until their successor becomes entitled to act as such.

2. Combination of Elections

The Representation of the People Act 1983, Section 36 allows for the ordinary elections of County Councillors to be combined with the ordinary elections of Town/Community Councillors, if they are held on the same day. If a Parliamentary General Election is called for the same day as the scheduled ordinary elections of County and Town/Community Councillors, the law provides for the Parliamentary and County polls to be combined and the Town/Community polling day to be postponed for three weeks.

3. The Election Timetable

We will provide Town/Community Clerks with a timetable for each election or by-election. Saturdays, Sundays, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, Good Friday or a Bank Holiday are disregarded when the timetable is being calculated before polling day. They are however, included in the calculation of proceedings following polling day. For example, the last day for the delivery of candidates' returns of election expenses, which is calculated as 28 calendar days after the day of election.

4. Absent Voting

New postal vote applications or applications to change a postal vote to a proxy vote (or vice-versa), or to have a postal ballot paper sent to a different address, or to cancel a postal must be made to the Electoral Registration Officer at Vale of Glamorgan Council, Civic Offices, Holton Road, Barry, CF63 4RU by 5 pm on the eleventh day before Election Day. New or amended proxy applications must be made by 5pm on the sixth day before Election Day.

5. Nomination Procedures

It is important that nomination papers are completed correctly. Whilst it is often the case that the Town/Community Clerk will arrange to distribute and oversee the completion of nomination papers, it is the responsibility of each Candidate and not the Clerk, to ensure that their papers are submitted to the Returning Officer before the deadline specified within the statutory election timetable. Any papers which are incomplete, incorrect or received after the close of nominations cannot be accepted as valid. It is important that nomination papers are completed correctly.

The following information can be used as a guide:-

About Yourself:

Each candidate must be nominated on a separate nomination paper in the prescribed form, the notes to which should be read carefully.

The nomination paper must give:-

- the full names (surname first) and home address of the candidate, and
- may if desired give his or her description, which must not exceed six words in length. A candidate may not use a description which is likely to lead voters to associate him or her with a Political Party unless that description is authorised by a Certificate signed by or on behalf of the Party's Registered Nominating Officer, which must also be received by the Returning Officer not later than the latest time for the delivery of nomination papers. If a candidate wishes to use a party's emblem to appear against his or her name on the ballot paper, this must also be requested before the closing time for delivery of nominations.

Signing Nominations:

The nomination paper must be subscribed by a:-

- (i) Proposer and
- (ii) Secunder

The Proposer and Secunder must be local government electors of the Community, or if the Community is divided into wards, the Community ward, and their electoral numbers must be given on the nomination paper. They cannot sign more nomination papers than the number of vacancies to be filled. Whilst the Electoral Team can provide poll numbers, they cannot formally validate a nomination paper immediately, as another candidate may have already submitted a paper bearing a similar Proposer/Secunder.

It is good practice for the Town/Community Council Clerk not to sign nomination papers or advocate the election of any particular candidate. Strict impartiality will avoid any possible accusation of bias.

Qualifications for Candidature:

To be qualified to be elected a member of a Town/Community Council, a person must be 18 years of age or over at the date of his or her nomination, and a Commonwealth citizen, a citizen of the Republic of Ireland, or a citizen of another Member State of the European Community, and either:-

- (i) on that day he/she is and thereafter he/she continues to be a local government elector for the area of the Community; or
- (ii) he/she has during the whole of the twelve months preceding that day occupied as owner or tenant any land or other premises in the Community; or
- (iii) his/her principal or only place of work during that twelve months has been in that area; or

- (iv) he/she has during the whole of those twelve months resided either in the Community or within 4.8 kilometres (3 miles) of it.

Candidates are advised to complete as many of the relevant qualifications as apply.

There are certain disqualifications for election, of which the main (see S.80 of the Local Government Act 1972) are:-

- (a) holding a paid office under the authority;
- (b) is the subject of a bankruptcy restrictions order or interim order;
- (c) having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) of not less than three months, without the option of a fine during the five years preceding the election; and
- (d) being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal practices.

Consent to Nomination:

The nomination is NOT valid unless the candidate's consent to nomination, given in writing on or within one month before the last day for delivery of nomination papers, is delivered at the place and within the time appointed for the delivery of nomination papers. The consent must contain a statement declaring that, with reference to the day of nomination the candidate is, and on the day of election will be, qualified to be elected (giving particulars of his or her qualification) and must be attested by a witness. Any person may act as a witness to the candidate's signature. The consent to nomination must also include the candidate's date of birth.

Campaigning and Expenditure:

Election campaigning can be carried out as soon as a person declares himself/herself to be a candidate. All election publicity must carry an imprint with details of the full name and full postal address of the printer and promoter of the material. There is no longer a requirement to include the details of a publisher. The name and address of any person on whose behalf the material is being published must also be included, if this person is not the promoter.

Candidates are subject to limits on what they spend during the regulated period in advance of an election. The limit for the local government elections is £600, plus 5p per local government elector in the ward. A record (and receipts) for any expenses incurred should be kept, as towards the end of the election process, each candidate must, by law, complete and return their Election Expenses. No reimbursement of expenses can be made by The Vale of Glamorgan Council to candidates – it is a record which is available for public inspection.

6. Statement of Persons Nominated

Not later than noon on the seventeenth day before election day, the Returning Officer is required to publish a statement of persons who stand nominated and of the reasons why any other persons nominated no longer stand nominated. A copy of this statement will be sent to the Town/Community Clerk for display locally. A copy of the notice will also be published on The Vale of Glamorgan Council's website.

7. Withdrawal of Candidature

A candidate may withdraw his or her candidature if, not later than noon on the sixteenth day before the Election Day, he or she delivers at the place fixed for the delivery of nomination papers a notice of withdrawal signed by him or her, and attested by one witness.

It is only at the expiry of this deadline that we will know whether or not there will be a poll.

8. Appointment of Polling, Postal and Counting Agents

A candidate may appoint polling agents to detect personation at a polling station, postal agents to observe the opening of postal votes and counting agents to observe at the count.

Polling Agents

You can appoint any number of polling agents to attend each polling station but only one polling agent for each candidate can be present in a polling station at any time. A polling agent can be appointed to attend multiple polling stations. However the number of polling agents who may be appointed to any particular polling station is limited to four.

Postal Agents

You and a person appointed by you to attend in your place are entitled to attend the opening of returned postal votes. At postal opening sessions, the Returning Officer and her team will decide whether or not the date of birth and signature provided by electors on their postal voting statements match their original records. Ballot papers are opened upside down and are secured until the date and time of the count.

Counting Agents

You are entitled to observe the count and will also receive a guest entry card to invite one other person to attend with you. You may also appoint counting agents to attend on your behalf. Counting agents can observe the process to make sure it is accurate and can draw attention to doubtful ballot papers.

To appoint Polling, Postal or Counting Agents please complete the relevant forms and return to the Electoral Registration Department by the deadline (Polling and Counting Agents – fifth working day before the poll). Some restrictions may apply to the number of Postal or Counting Agents.

All agents attending a polling station, postal opening session or the count must read the secrecy requirements provided and have a legal duty to maintain secrecy.

Tellers

A polling agent is not the same as a 'teller' (a candidate's helper who takes the numbers of electors leaving the polling station), who has no official standing and is not allowed to enter the polling station except to vote.

9. Uncontested Elections

If the number of people remaining validly nominated after any withdrawals does not exceed the number of Councillors to be elected, such people will be declared to be elected as soon as possible after the latest time for the delivery of withdrawals. The Returning Officer will give notice of their names to the Town/Community Clerk and to the public.

However, people elected in these circumstances do not take office until four days after the day of election (see paragraph A.1) except in the case of a by-election where an unopposed candidate will take office immediately after they have been declared to be elected (which is after the latest time for delivery of the close of withdrawals) Local Elections (Parishes and Communities) (England and Wales) Rules 2006 which state (Rule 50 (2)).

If there are not enough candidates to fill all the vacancies, the Representation of the People Act 1985, Section 21 allows the elected members, provided there is a quorum (i.e. – one third of the whole number of members with a minimum of three) to co-opt members to fill the remaining vacancies. Please refer to Section B 5 for advice on co-option.

If the Town/Community Council fails to exercise the power to co-opt within seven weeks (35 days computed as under paragraph A.3) or if there is no quorum, The Vale of Glamorgan Council may order a fresh election to properly constitute the Town/Community Council.

10. Contested Elections – Declaration of Result

When the result of the poll is known, the Returning Officer or the appointed Deputy will:-

- (a) declare to be elected the candidate(s) to whom more votes have been given than to the other candidates, up to the number of Councillors to be elected.
- (b) give notice of the name of each candidate elected to the Town/Community Clerk.
- (c) give public notice of the name of each candidate and of the total number of votes given for each (whether elected or not) together with the number of rejected ballot papers.

11. Election Expenses and Supplied Registers

At the end of the election period, even if no poll has taken place, each Candidate (whether successful or not) MUST submit a Statement of Election Expenses/ Declaration to show the expenses (if any) incurred as part of their election campaign. These documents are available for public inspection and failure to return one (even if it is a 'Nil Return') is a reported electoral offence.

12. Declaration of Acceptance of Office

A person elected to the office of a Town/Community Councillor shall:-

- (a) in the case of the Chair, at the meeting at which they are elected; or
- (b) in the case of a Councillor, before or at the first meeting of the Community Council after their election; or
- (c) in either case if the Council at that meeting allows, before or at a later meeting fixed by the Council.

make in the presence of a member of the Council or of the proper officer of the Council a Declaration of Acceptance of Office (see Appendix 1).

Failure to do so will mean their office will become vacant (Local Government Act 1972, Section 83). The person making the declaration is now required to observe the Code of Conduct adopted by the Town/Community Council.

13. Annual Meeting

A Town/Community Council must hold an annual meeting each year on any day in May they choose.

Except in the year when ordinary elections are held for all Councillors, when the annual meeting must be held on, or within fourteen days after, the day the new Councillors take office (i.e. the fourth day after the day of the election (usually a Monday).

14. Electoral and non-electoral offences

You should be aware of the different offences and seek legal advice where necessary. Please contact the Returning Office if you believe an election related crime has been committed. If appropriate this may be referred to the Police.

Electoral offences include:

- Bribery
- Treating
- Undue influence
- Personation
- False statements
- False registration
- False applications
- Breach of secrecy
- Campaign material
- Racial hatred

B. FILLING OF CASUAL VACANCIES

Casual vacancies will be filled either by election or co-option. Below is a step-by-step guide to help Town/Community Clerks.

1. The Vacancy

Firstly, the Town/Community Council must inform the Elections Office of the vacancy, providing the name, reason and date. The Elections Office will produce a Casual Vacancy Notice which should be displayed in places that are as conspicuous as possible within the Community. The Vale of Glamorgan Council will also display the Casual Vacancy notice in the Civic Offices and on the Vale of Glamorgan website (see Appendix 2).

2. Filling the Vacancy by Election

During the 14 days of the Notice being displayed, ten electors from within the Community or Ward of the Town/Community can call for an election to be held. To do this they will need to make their request in writing to the Returning Officer, Vale of Glamorgan Council, Civic Offices, Holton Road, Barry, CF63 4RU. A sample election request form is in Appendix 3.

In the event of this happening, the Town/Community Clerk will be notified immediately. The Returning Officer will decide on the date of the election, which must fall within 60 working days (computed in accordance with Appendix 2) from the date of the Notice.

In the case of a casual vacancy occurring within six months before the day on which that Councillor would regularly have retired, an election is not held. The Town/Community Council may co-opt a person to fill the vacancy and any vacancy not so filled shall be filled at the next ordinary election.

3. Official Poll Cards

Where the poll at a Town/Community election is not combined with another type of election the Returning Officer will issue poll cards for that election.

An estimate of the cost of production and postage of poll cards will be supplied on request.

Where a Town/Community election is combined with a Vale of Glamorgan Council election, the poll cards will be issued for the County election but refer to the Town/Community election taking place on the same day.

4. Filling the Vacancy by Co-option

If an election is not requested, the Town/Community Clerk will be notified that the Town/Community Council must co-opt a member to fill the vacancy as soon as practicable. Where a Town/Community Council intends filling a vacancy by co-option, they must give public notice of the co-option opportunity, as required under S.116, Local Government (Wales) Measure 2011. This should be done by displaying a notice, similar to the notice in Appendix 4. The name and address of the person co-opted should be sent to the Returning Officer.

If the number of casual vacancies leaves the Town/Community Council without a quorum, The Vale of Glamorgan Council will order an election to be held and in the meantime may by order appoint people to fill all or any of the vacancies until other Councillors are elected and take up office.

5. Co-Option - Best Practice

- (i) The casual vacancy(ies) MUST be advertised by way of public notice within the community; consideration should also be given to advertising the vacancy(ies) in the local press.
- (ii) Set a date by which prospective candidates must write into the Chairman or Clerk to the Town/Community Council expressing their interests in these casual vacancies.
- (iii) Notice of the Election (co-option) should be given in the agenda for the meeting of the Town/Community Council.
- (iv) When the item is reached, the Chairman should call for nominations, which should be duly proposed and seconded.
- (v) Candidates can be either interviewed or their letter of interest read out to a Town/Community Council meeting.
- (vi) The prospective candidates must fulfil the same criteria requirements as those for qualifications for candidature for an election.
- (vii) When all the nominations have been received a vote should be taken. It is usual for the candidates' names to be put in alphabetical order. (Voting in council on casual vacancies is recommended).
- (viii) A successful candidate should have received an absolute majority vote of those present and voting.
- (ix) It follows that if there are more than two candidates for one vacancy and no one of them at the first count receives a majority over the aggregate votes given to the rest, steps should be taken to strike off the candidate with the least number of votes and the remainder should then be put to the vote again; this process should, if necessary, be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained.
- (x) If there is more than one vacancy and the number of candidates equals the number of vacancies, all the vacancies may be filled by a single composite resolution, but if the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies, each vacancy should be filled by a separate vote or series of votes.

- (xi) After the vote has been taken, the Chairman should declare the candidate who received the highest number of votes duly elected.
- (xii) The person elected must make a declaration of acceptance of office before, or at, the first meeting of the Town/Community Council following his election in the presence of a member of the Town/Community Council or the Proper Officer of the Town/Community Council.

Note: There is nothing preventing Councillors from approaching persons to offer themselves for co-option or even advertising for co-optee applicants. Applications might also be invited to provide a written “application” or invited to speak to the council prior to any voting. If such arrangements are to be applied, they should be carefully drafted and provided to applicants. It is imperative that all applicants are treated alike in order that the arrangements are seen as fair. Applicants under such arrangements should be discouraged from any personal lobbying.

6. Insufficient Nominations

Where an election has been requested to fill a casual vacancy and there are insufficient nominations, a further election will have to be arranged and held within 35 computed days (Representation of the People Act 1983, Section 39(1)) of the date of the original election.

7. Term of Office

A person elected or co-opted to fill a casual vacancy holds office until the person in whose place they are elected or appointed would regularly have retired.
